

Numbers in Motion: Sophie Kowalevski, Queen of Mathematics

978-1939547637 3/3/20

Creston Books, $18.99

Laurie Wallmark and Yevgenia Nayberg

Numbers in Motion: Sophie Kowalevski, Queen of Mathematics tells the intriguing story about the first woman to receive a doctorate in mathematics that required original research, the first to hold a university chair in mathematics, and the first to be the editor of a major scientific journal. Sophie Kowalevski proved that women can add up to a lot.

(click picture for hi-res image)

SELECTED AWARDS:

- Mathical Honor Book
- Best in STEM Book (National Science Teachers Association)